

THE BAYAN POST

A MESSAGE FROM THE 24-25 EDITOR-IN-CHIEF

Dear High School,

As seniors approach the end of the high school journey, I would like to take a moment to express my sincere gratitude to the teachers who have devoted countless hours to our growth and understanding. Your unwavering support and dedication have profoundly influenced our lives. While high school can be challenging, I am especially thankful to those who constantly motivated me and pushed me to reach my fullest potential: Mr. Majdi, Ms. Ghuson, Mr. Mahmood, Ms. Mirna, Ms. Mirvat, Ms. Niyaz, Ms. Susan, Ms. Maria, Ms. Latha, Mr. Tony, Mr. Magdi, Mr. Amer, Ms. Rowan, Ms. Kameela, Ms. Balqees, and Ms. Anjala. Your guidance has inspired me deeply, and while "thank you" may seem insufficient, please know how much I value your contributions and the difference you've made in our lives.

With heartfelt appreciation,
Fatima AlKuwari, Editor-in-Chief

THANK YOU, MS. SUSAN

“Every student is unique and has a unique ability to become a great student”- Ms. Susanna

With over 30 years of teaching experience, including 25 years at Bayan, Ms. Susanna Pulavarthi embodies a true passion for education. From an early age, she realized her love for teaching, driven by the joy of seeing her students understand and grow. Her commitment to making learning accessible and engaging has made her a cornerstone of the Bayan community, where she feels deeply connected to the family-like atmosphere.

Ms. Susanna specializes in IB Biology, Chemistry, and Environmental Systems and Societies (ESS). Her philosophy is rooted in the belief that every student is unique, possessing individual abilities and skills that can be nurtured to prepare them for a successful future. She strives to ensure that all her students learn and develop in ways that suit their potential, fostering confidence and independence.

Her personal life is just as inspiring. She is married to a neurosurgeon and is the proud mother of two accomplished children—a daughter who is an accountant and a son who is currently studying software engineering.

For Ms. Susanna Pulavarthi, Bayan is more than a workplace; it is a second home. She cannot imagine her life without the bonds she has formed here. Her passion, dedication, and belief in the transformative power of education have made her a treasured educator and mentor, shaping countless lives throughout her remarkable career.

THANK YOU, MR. MAJDI

BY: HASAN ZAINALABEDIN

Dear Mr. Majdi,

There are honestly a million things I could say to you, but I don't think any of them could show you just how much I appreciate you. You've done so much for me; you've listened to so much of what I've had to say, from my rants and complaints, to my little updates. Every time I had something to say to you, I knew I could find you and you'd be there for it all. Thank you for being someone I could confide in and talk to. Thank you for making me feel heard when I needed to vent. Thank you for trying your best to help me, especially when I needed it most. This is my way, albeit nowhere near the thanks you deserve, of thanking you for it all.

THANK YOU, MS. NIYAZ

BY: HASAN ZAINALABEDIN

Dear Ms. Niyaz,

You've helped me through so much, I feel like you deserve this and more. I know I was relatively independent with the essays and all, but thanks for responding to those google chats all the time. I love our conversations so much, our little chats and talks, I feel like with you I get to discuss anything. I hope that you feel the same. I hope that before I graduate, we can have just a little more conversations, because I deeply enjoy them. Thank you so much, Ms. Niyaz.

THANK YOU, MR. SEBI

BY: MOHAMMED ALI

The backbone of high school, Mr. Sebin Chittilappilly—more known as Sebi—is someone whom we all can thank and be grateful for. While most of us don't see or notice, Mr. Sebi has been working day and night for all of us, supporting in simply delivering messages from one teacher to another and helping in cleaning up around the school. Mr. Sebi's admirable dedication and constant best effort in his work have definitely not gone unnoticed. His continuous work has benefited us all in indirect ways, and I'm sure we've all grown fond of him. Mr. Sebi constantly maintains a positive outlook, brightening everyone's day with his unforgettable smile.

For all your hard work, passion, and positivity, Thank you, Mr. Sebi!

We ♥ you, Mr. Sebi.

THANK YOU, MR. MAHMOOD

BY: DAREEN ABURUMMAN

Dear Mr. Mahmood Hujairi,

The past two years have been quite challenging, especially towards the end of last year. From my experience as the junior DSG to becoming the SG of BayMUN XVII, your unwavering belief in me has been incredibly motivating. Thank you for being our BayMUN parent and mentor from the very beginning. Your presence has always provided us with reassurance, whether during interviews, meetings, or simply being there for us to share our thoughts.

I am truly grateful for your support, for trusting my decisions, and for helping me achieve my goals. These past two years were not easy, but with your guidance, I was able to navigate them successfully. I appreciate you immensely; you are an amazing teacher, a favorite among many.

Kind regards,
Dareen

THANK YOU, MR. AMER

BY: TARIQ AL HAMMADI

For this month's article regarding teacher appreciation, I have selected my psychology teacher, Mr. Amer Natsheh. Mr Amer has been a very helpful and supportive teacher when it comes to understanding the fundamentals of psychology and studying human behavior. Throughout semester one, we have covered various topics ranging from the ethical considerations that take place during psychological experiments, to the various forms animals can safely be used to gain insight about human behavior. I look forward to what semester two has in store for the psychology curriculum, alongside Mr. Amer's excellent and efficient teaching skills.

THANK YOU, MS. AMY

BY: DHABYA AL MANNAI

Ms. Amy has inspired many students to problem-solve; her passion for art and dedication in helping all her students is really inspiring. Her enthusiasm for various art techniques and mediums encourages her students to explore their creativity and step outside their comfort zones.

I really appreciate how Ms. Amy creates a supportive environment in her classroom. When a student encounters a challenge with their artwork, she never makes them feel bad or ashamed. Instead, she offers solutions and reassures them that those mistakes are simply part of the process.

Thank you for being a great teacher!

THANK YOU, MS. CHRISTINA

BY: AMNA YOUSIF & FARAH JANAHI

We selected Ms. Christina for this month's article because she's been there for us since we first joined highschool. She taught both of us in grade 9 and we've relied on her since then, whether it is for English work, or to sit and chat with her, or watch the Eras Tour movie! Her door is always open for us, so thank you for everything. We love you!

THANK YOU, MS. MIRNA

BY: ZAINAB AL YUSUF

I appreciate Ms. Mirna a lot for many reasons. I'm very thankful to have her in my life as she helps me grow and get better in my studies and in my everyday life, so I'd like to thank her for all she does for me.

Hello, Ms. Mirna, thank you for always being there for me when I needed you. Thank you for always calming me down and putting me in a better mood every time you see me upset. Thank you for making my English class the best English class ever and for always finding the funniest way to teach our class and make sure we love what we're learning. I could go on and on with all the things I'd thank you for, but if I did, I probably wouldn't stop. I love you so much and I'm so grateful to have you in my life. You're a very big part of my life and I'll never forget you! I love you

Love,
Zuzu

THANK YOU, MS. LATHA

BY: JOOD AL HASHEMI

As many people may know, Ms. Latha Richardson is an IB Business and Economics teacher. Throughout her years of working at Bahrain Bayan School, her warmth and dedication have made her a staple in our community. She is continuously working hard in order to benefit the school and her students. Ms. Latha builds connections with students and understands them on a deeper level. She ensures everyone is on the right track and acknowledges their personal needs. She does not only assist in academic growth but also focuses on personal development as well, helping us in the long run. She goes above and beyond to make sure each student is benefitting from her class and her teaching. Her commitment is beyond her classroom, as she is there for students anywhere, at any time.

I would especially like to thank Ms. Latha for the countless hours she spends every day to make sure her students are receiving the best education possible and tailoring it to their needs. Ms. Latha, your hard work and dedication are very much appreciated, and I hope you know how much of an impact you make on your students. Thank you for everything you do!

THANK YOU, MR. TONY

BY: SABA SANGOOR

Mr. Tony is a brilliant math teacher who makes his students feel at ease, knowing they will not be judged while learning. His patience and understanding enable us to explore complex mathematical concepts at our own pace while building up our confidence in the process. His enthusiasm toward teaching made quite challenging topics approachable and appealing. For this, I am so thankful to have him as my math teacher.

THANK YOU, MS. MARIA

BY: HAMAD MUBARAK AL KHALIFA AND BASHAR ABDULLA

Ms. Maria, we would like to take a moment to express our heartfelt appreciation for your incredible teaching and the effort you put into making chemistry such an enjoyable and engaging subject for us. Your passion for the subject shines through in every lesson, and it inspires us to approach chemistry with curiosity and enthusiasm. The way you break down complex concepts into simpler, more understandable pieces truly makes a difference in our learning experience.

Your creative teaching methods and your ability to connect the material to real-life applications make the subject not only easier to grasp but also exciting to explore. We genuinely look forward to your classes because of the positive and encouraging atmosphere you create, where every question is welcomed, and every student feels supported. Your dedication to ensuring that we succeed, both academically and personally, does not go unnoticed, and we are truly grateful for all that you do for us. Thank you for making chemistry a subject we love and for being such an amazing teacher who inspires us to give our best every day.

THANK YOU, MR. MAHMOOD

BY: FATIMA AL KUWARI

Dear Mr. Mahmood,
From BayMUN XVI to XVII and throughout the Robotics Club, you have always been there for me and the entire team. You were always there to listen when I needed to vent. Whenever someone upset me with their words or actions, you stood by me without hesitation. Our BayMUN parent, always and forever. Thank you for showing me what it means to be a thoughtful and considerate individual. Thank you for being like a father figure to us all, and for helping us tackle those last-minute stressful tasks on the day of the conference. I'm truly thankful to have shared both the BayMUN and Robotics journeys with you as my guiding mentor. Thank you so much; I wish I could find a better way to express my gratitude.

THANK YOU, MS. MIRNA

BY: FATIMA AL KUWARI

It's truly difficult to find the right words to convey my gratitude to you, Ms. Mirna. You have been my safe space, my supporter, and most importantly, my friend. Thank you for always being there for me. After a semester in Grade 11, your class practically became my home; I could study, eat, or simply talk there. You got to know me better than I know myself, and I like to think I know you just as well. You are a kind soul, a nurturing figure, and an exceptional teacher. Right now, as I try to find the right words, I doubt you can fully grasp the emotions I'm feeling. While I'm excited to conclude my high school journey and graduate, I must say, I will miss opening the door to class 210 and seeing you there, eager to start the lesson.
