

Extended Essay planning form

Title (This should be fairly general, and not phrased as a question):

Research Question (this should be very focused, and phrased as a question):

Aims of the research (why your EE is worthy of study)

Methods:

Types of sources to be used (e.g., journals; newspapers; books; Internet sites-which must be fully cited, not just the address; interviews-if interviews will be used, please state who you are planning to interview and why)

How will you have access to these sources?

What are the important or key theories or theorists?
