Bahrain Bayan School students participate in a relief trip for refugees. Organized by the Royal Humanitarian Foundation and under the supervision of Dr. Mustafa Al-Sayed, Secretary-General of the Royal Humanitarian Foundation, students from Bayan Al Bahrain School, Ibn Khaldoun School and Gulf University participated in a humanitarian volunteer trip to Zaatari camp in Jordan, where they contributed to providing aid to refugees and visiting Bahrain schools in Jordan and orphanage. They met with His Excellency the Minister of Social Development in Jordan with United Nations officials. Those interested in relief matters considered that the students' participation in the relief campaign is nothing but a qualitative initiative that stimulates charitable work, cultivates in them a love of volunteer and humanitarian work, refines their personalities and develops their human values.

The participating students (Mohammed Khalifa Al Ghatam, Issa Al Majed, Lama Al Maraj) had an active role in the discussion and managing the dialogue. We thank the Ministry of Education for providing this opportunity for students to participate in the forum.
