GDN BREAKING NEWS

New measures to combat Covid-19

A series of new measures has been implemented by the Government Executive Committee to combat Covid-19. This includes continuation of closure of cinemas, fitness centres and salons. Restaurants and cafes will continue to open only for takeaway and deliveries. People across Bahrain have also been urged to wear face masks in public. The ban on public gatherings of more than 5 people will continue. Commercial and Industrial stores that provide services and goods to customers will be allowed to operate under strict guidelines. While the private sector has been instructed to implement remote working. These measures, among others, will be enforced from April 9 until April 23. The Executive Committee is chaired by His Royal Highness Prince Salman bin Hamad Al Khalifa, Crown Prince, Deputy Supreme Commander and First Deputy Premier.

The National Taskforce for Combating the Coronavirus (COVID-19) highlights measures taken to mitigate the spread of COVID-19

The National Taskforce for Combating the Coronavirus (COVID-19) held a press conference at the Crown Prince Centre for Training and Medical Research to highlight measures taken to mitigate the spread of COVID-19.

HE Faeqa bint Saeed Al Saleh, Minister of Health, began by stating that the Kingdom has recorded 458 recoveries from COVID-19 thanks to the united efforts of citizens, residents and medical workers on the frontline who have, together, all adopted global health protocols.

HE the Minister noted that Bahrain will continue to overcome all challenges presented by the virus with the continued support of HM King Hamad Al Khalifa who directed free COVID-19 treatment for all citizens and residents, as well as the vigorous monitoring, tracking and treatment of all suspected and active cases, led by the Ministry of Health.

There is no need for a national curfew in Bahrain at the moment, it was stressed. Continuing the implementation of a ban on public gatherings is key to defeating the coronavirus, said National Taskforce for Combating Covid 19 Monitoring Committee head Lieutenant Colonel Dr Manaf Al Qahtani. He said each country has its own guidelines and measures to combat the virus. He was speaking at a press briefing.

The first batch of tracking bracelets has been made available for Covid-19 medical or home quarantine cases by the Information and eGovernment Authority (IGA).

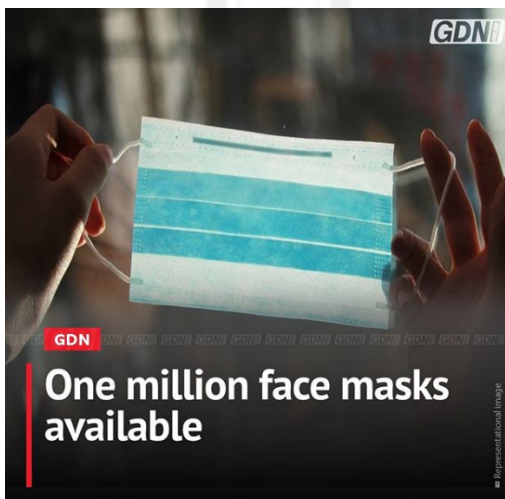

People opting to stay in hotels during their assigned quarantine period for the Coronavirus Disease (Covid-19) will not be allowed to leave the facility in the first 14 days nor will they be allowed to receive visitors, according to the Health Ministry. A patient can leave the place once a nasopharyngeal swab taken on day 13 turns out negative. However, people are free to extend their stay in quarantine if they wish to do so for further safety.
