Pearl Diving

For more than 2000 years, Bahrain's pearls have been prized as some of the best natural pearls in the world. In the past, pearl divers spent months away from home at sea. They were lowered on weighted ropes and remained underwater for over a minute with nothing but a nose peg to control their breathing. Now, you have the opportunity to hunt for pearls right here in the seawaters of the Gulf.

- How to become a modern pearl diver:
- Purchase your ticket online at portal.btea.bh
- Attend a briefing workshop
- Depart from Ras Rayyah with a licensed diving company
- Collect up to 60 oysters
- Open your collected oysters on the boat upon your return
- Have your pearls appraised for value and quality

Something you would like to share about yourself:
I enjoy spending time with my family and friends.

Tell us a little about your family ...

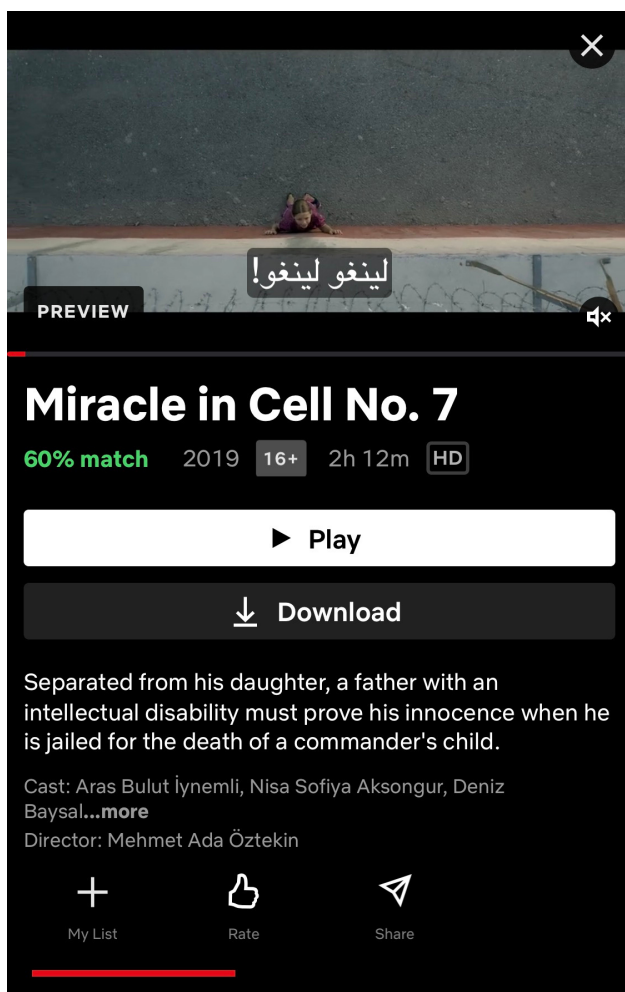

I am married and have 3 beautiful girls. I have been married to a wonderful man for 26 years and we have 3 daughters. Our oldest is 23 years old and is currently finishing up her Masters of Education in Curriculum and Instruction. Our middle and youngest daughters are twins, who are 18 years. They are just starting their freshman year at University of Idaho in America, one in Engineering and the other in Forensic Sociology.
